

Community Development Graduate Group
Doing Debating Development
 Winter 2009
 Thursdays 4:00-5:00 pm
 3201 Hart Hall (Third Floor)

1/8/09	Chris Benner, Department of Human and Community Development, UC Davis	This Could Be the Start of Something Big: How Social Movements for Regional Equity Are Shaping Metropolitan America”
1/15/09	Karen Chapple, Department of City and Regional Planning Center for Community Innovation, UC Berkeley,	What is Spatial Justice? Addressing Income Segregation at the Regional Scale
1/22/09	Raoul Liévanos, Department of Sociology, UC Davis	Lost in Translation? Exploring Linguistic Isolation and Environmental Inequality in the California Delta-Suisun Region."
1/27/09	- Kent Wong, Director, UCLA Labor Center, co-editor, "Underground Undergrads" - Matias Ramos, student author, "Underground Undergrads"	‘Underground Undergrads’: Immigration, Education and Equity
2/5/09	Suheil Totah, Vice President Thomas Enterprises	Innovations in mixed use urban infill
2/12/09	Richard Dana, Director, Mutual Assistance ork	Building Equity within a Low-Income Neighborhood
2/19/09	Frank Hirtz, Department of Human and Community Development	Food Insecurity, Hunger, and Local Policies in the I-80 Corridor of California
2/26/09	Alyssa Nelson Youth In Focus	Participatory geographies, youth action research and the politics of place
3/5/09	Rachel Iskow, Director, Sacramento Mutual Housing Association	Housing equity: How do we get there?
3/12/09	Gordon Gary Director of Research and Analysis, Sacramento Area Council of Governments	TBA